Back by popular demand, the Cokato Historical Society will publish a limited edition historic calendar for the year 2011. This year's theme will be Nifty Fifties In Cokato. Each month will feature unique photo(s) from form the area highlighting that decade.

As a member/friend of the historical society, you can use the form below to place your advance order. All mailed orders will include a postage/handling charge. The calendar goes on sale to the general public at the Corn Carnival. Sale proceeds will help fund restoration of the museum's exterior mural.
